JR. VOLS DOWN STYLE MART TEAM

The Junior Vols came through with their best performance of the season on the night of January 7, as they downed the strong Merit Mart Style team of Mayfield Ky. by a score of 44-40.

Neither team held the lead any length of time and it was the thrilling finish of the team that never gave up that brought the crowd to their feet with a dazzling performance of offensive basketball in the closing moment of play. "Square" Roberts led the scoring of the Vols with 14 points followed by Sugg Keiser with 9.

The fine floor play and defensive work of Captain Shankle, Green and Lloyd Vaughn featured the play of the Vols.

The lineup
UTJC: Shankle (7), Green (11), Keiser (9), L. Vaughn (6), Green (4).
Mayfield: F. MacGrader (14), F. Holland (11), C. Howell (7), G. Shupe (3), G. Substitutions: T. Hamilton, Houston, Roberts (14), Miller, Lang (3), Mayfield Johnson, Mason (14).

Vols Have Clear Slate On Victories

The U. T. Junior Vol eagles have come through to date with the most impressive performance of any team under the leadership of Coach H. K. Grantham in winning every game to date without a defeat.

The Vols started off with a bang after the Christmas holidays defeating Paducah Junior College by a 73-20 score and followed this up with their second win of the season over Mayfield Clothing Company.

A 74-23 victory over the Vols on a 50-23 win over Cumberland University, one of the traditional rivals of the Vols, was followed by a 47-23 score. Last Friday night, the Junior Vols conquered the strong Bismarck Independents by a 57-27 score.

AG NOTES

The Ag Club plans to bring Weaverville County Agent Ellis and a representative of the American Jersey Cattle Club before one of their meetings in the near future.

Present plans call for the Ag Club to sponsor a horse show on the athletic field sometime during the spring. Announcement of definite plans are expected at some time in the near future.

SPORT LIGHTS

By Crawford Aden

RATING 'EM UP

As the Junior Vol quintet defeats team after team of the leading five in this section, local sport enthusiasts are beginning to compare the present aggregation with the championship team of '29, which consisted of such stars as McCorkle, Shankle, Taylor, McKnight and others.

This year's team probably lacks the experience of the championship five but likely would prove the stronger team of the two on all-around offense and defensive ability. The reserves of this year's hardwood students are of first class ability and Coach Grantham has five men on the bench that he can substitute without weakening the starting five to any great extent.

COMPETITION FOR THE VOLS

The two teams expected to battle it out for this year's MVC championship will come out of Jackson in the person of five youngsters from Lambuth and Moorehead, Mississippi, which is boasting of the prowess of the Sunflower team.

Lambuth, the '35 champions, will once more be the team to beat in the race. The Eagles boast of the return of three all-conference men selected at the tournament last winter. The true strength of the Sunflower

Aggies is unknown due to the fact they have tangled with but one conference foe to date, but with the return of several veterans, they are expected to give the champions, along with the Junior Vols, plenty of competition.

Fred Hardeman's crackerjack team of '35 has been scattered to the four corners of the earth and the Henderson lads are not expected to offer a great deal of opposition, but may prove to be the dark horses of the conference.

SOUTHERN PRESTIGE GETS A TUMBLE

A few weeks ago, two of the best basketball teams from the North and the South tied up in a thrilling contest in a New York City gymnasium.

New York College upheld the dignity of the North and the University of Kentucky, pride of the Blue Grass region, carried the colors of the South. The Kentucky boys held their own the first half, but the first half seemed to tell on the Southern boys as they weakened and the New York boys literally trampled them underfoot in the closing period of play.

Southern teams have already proved their ability to play football on a par with the rest of the country and now it is up to our eagles to come through and show the world they play a fast brand of basketball below the Mason and Dixon line as they do elsewhere and not admit that we don't have the stamina to stand up under rough going.

Kentucky is not the only victim of the Northern brand of play, but Vanderbilt, Louisiana State, Tulane, and other top-notch teams fell before the Pittsburgh Panthers, a team with just an average reputation in the East.

Is the difference in the coaching in the South or is it in the material? Maybe it is both. Time will tell.

MORRISON VS. NEYLAND

Coach Ray Morrison, genial coach of the Vanderbilt Commodores, is making a hit throughout the country with his frank talks to the young football player of the high school age and every day sees some football star enroll or reappear to do so in the Nashville institution of higher learning.

Major Neyland is expected to be back in the U. T. fold before long and it would not be surprising to see the Major also campaigning for new football material to help uphold his admirable record at the University.

After the disastrous season of '35 the alumni and supporters of the team are sure to go out and try to find new material for a winning eleven.

INTRAMURAL ACTIVITIES

Athletic Director H. K. Grantham seems to have hit on perhaps the most popular intramural contest in the history of the school with the introduction of the county basketball tournament. Much interest has been manifested between rival county teams and the tournament seems certain to be made an annual event.

SPORT FLASHES

"Red" Bricker, Martin boy and former Junior Vol, is holding down the forward position of the Murray State Teachers' quintet.

Report is that "Red" is going to rival the team of Howard Murray star who made the All-American five a few years back.

It looks as if the Dixie High school is going to have to look to new finds to conquer after their decisive win over Cumberland High, West Tennessee's leading basketball school.

The MVC is called one of the fastest basketball conferences in the nation.

The Junior Vols look for the team to stop the march of the Jacksonians to their second consecutive championship.

The Rhodes Central has managed to get a universal pickup and delivery service, which is available to lots of less than one cent.

The best offer ever made to a football coach was recently made to Bernie Heiman, Minnesota leader, who was offered a contract of $15,000 a year for a period of ten years.

KATIE'S KEYHOLE COLUMN

"This said that the public is always howling for something different. So dear howling public, here is something different to howl about."

Scene: UTJC campus
Time: 1936

Times change, yes time change. Fact is, the buildings are now being used to shelter stray cows, (that is all except the girls' dorm, which is exactly the same, except it has bars over the windows and doors). And green grows the grass over the mud-dewed stones scattered over the one-time muddy campus. We scratched the 50-year-old cinders off a certain stone and were astonished by this epitaph:

Dougan Page lies 'neath these humble bricks.
He met his death a-chasin' chickens.
Woe unto them who're always kiddin'!
Even tho' of pests the school is riddin'.

And then we noticed many other familiar names in the old yard. As we brushed away an erstwhile tear, we stumbled over this elaboration:

Here lies at rest, one Jimmie Dent.
May many go the way he went.
A healthy life he lived, 'til when
He didn't bring gher home by ten.

And then this:
Edna Parks, a cooed crazy.
Her life was just a series of hazes.
At last she's helping humanity
By fertilizing daisies.

Shed it, my woman,
For goodness the sheik
By a husband was shot
And killed, the sneak.

Within this dust
Assigned to rest
"Hot" White,
The pool hall
Knew him best.

Please play the fate
Of Ray DeMoss.
He led on the right girl
But the wrong "boss".

Louis Bolejack, age 50 and four,
This said for her that life was a bore.

Pity the story of that gorgeous creature,
She's not to blame, she married a percher.

Here we lay Miss Burney,
Neon, new, late,
She even made it in on time
For the grave yard gate.

"White" burns longer, a wax candle or a yellow candle?"

"N' fiber. They both burn shorter".

For the cop: "Use your needle, miss, use your needle!"

Miss Ingram: "Well, my goodness! What is it? I've pushed and pulled everything in the can".

MISS BURNEY ATTENDS MEET

Miss Mary Vick Burney, UTJC librarian, attended the midwinter conference of the American Library Association in Chicago last week.

While in Chicago, Miss Burney conferred with Mary E. Baker, head of all University of Tennessee libraries, and heard speeches by B. Lamar Johnson, Dean of Instruction at Stevens College, Columbia, Mo.; Carl Mann, secretary of The American Library Association, and H. W. Wilson, publisher of the United States books of accumulated indexes, Readers' Guide, and Agricultural Index.

Headquarters of the A. L. A. are in Chicago and business meetings of the association are held there each winter. A spring meeting of the group is held annually and will be in Richmond, Va., in May of this year.

Miss Burney hopes to attend the Richmond conference.

STRATTON'S DID YOU KNOW THAT—there are fifteen new students at UTJC this term?

Prof. Derryberry was a Rhodes Scholar and was also a football star at Big U. T.?

Everett McIlwaine is a married man and former school principal?

there are 49 head of beef cattle on the experimental farm?

DeMoss has a hose, a bulldog, and a sweetheart?

Robert Harrison, James Dent, and John M. Martin are Methodist church ushers?

"Bach's Paradise," a cooperative boarding place for boys, has been established?

the confederates near the railroad are drained by tile pipes?

Edward Parham is a former high school spelling champion?

"Pop" Cravens attend school with Charles A. Lindbergh and that the school kept him and let Lindy go? (My, my!)

as much as 14 tons of coal per day are burned during cold snaps to heat UTJC buildings?

the dairy and beef cattle farms are equipped with lights, telephone, and running water? (What more could cattle ask for?)

I have several broken New Year resolutions I will sell very cheap?

Social Notes

BY DOROTHY RAINES

Harold Hoffman Honored by Sister.
Miss Helen Hoffman entertained Saturday night with a birthday surprise party in honor of her brother, Harold, a former UTJC student. The evening was spent in dancing and popping corn.

The guest list included Misses Cyril Oliver, Doris Polerjack, Mildred Derryberry, Meba McLan, Margaret Taylor, and Mildred Pierce, and Messrs. James Dent, John Marshall Martin, Robert Harrison, Gardner Campbell, Markey Luttrell, J. C. Stewart, and Kim Vaughn.

"Nickelodeon Dance."

University of Tennessee Junior College students ushered in the year 1936 with an informal dance at the gymnasium. The dance was sponsored by the boys living in the cooperative dormitory. Music was furnished by Jan Garber and many other famous bandmasters. (Isn't the nickelodeon a great invention?)

"Barnwarmin'."

The social season at the Junior College for the winter quarter was begun most successfully by the Ag Club in the form of an old fashioned "Barn-Warmin'" which is to be instituted as an annual affair.

The gymnasium was decorated in a timely and clever fashion with lanterns, cornstalks and hay. Guests were ushered in likewise in an humble fashion—on their knees.

Music for the ballroom was furnished by Woody Ryan and his Southern Colonels, while the square dancers swung their partners to the melodies of the Silver Leaf Orchestra of Martin.

Miss Dorothy Sue Cannon, candidate for the Home Ec Club, was crowned Queen of the Barn-Warmin' during intermission.

Members of the Martin younger social set were entertained with a weiner roast at the Boy Scout Cabin Saturday night, January 18.

Faculty Feted by Foods Department.

The Sophomore Foods Class, under the supervision of Miss Neta McFee, served a three-course luncheon to the Junior College faculty and several members of the Knoxville University faculty, including President James D. Hoskins, Victor M. Davis, Alumni secretary, and John Barnhill, line coach of the University of Tennessee, and also George C. Rowlett, member of the Board of Trustees, of Martin. Three tables were beautifully decorated in green and white.

Those assisting in the luncheon included Misses Mary Ellen Bailey, Margaret Overton, Dorothy Barton, Ruth Day, Elizabeth Canada, Pauline Holmes, and Elizabeth Warren.

Laying Varies

It is not always the largest bird that lays the greatest number of eggs. Although the ostrich usually numbers 15, the emperor penguin, largest of the species, lays but one egg. All other penguins lay two eggs. On the other hand, some of our small songbirds lay four or five eggs.
